Subject:- Essay Competition – OGCF'2013

Dear Sir/Madam,

Petroleum Conservation Research Association (PCRA) is a registered society working under the aegis of Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas, Government of India, and is working in the field of promoting Energy Conservation in various sectors of the economy. PCRA team conducts a variety of activities for the industrial/transport/commercial/ domestic sectors that are aimed at all age groups, which are using petroleum products.

For encouraging the youth of our country to think about the important issues related to Energy Conservation, every year PCRA organizes National and State Level Essay Competition for the students of schools / colleges / educational institutions.

The winners of the essay competition are awarded during the Oil and Gas Conservation Fortnight (OGCF) function. A copy of photographs of the students receiving the awards is enclosed herewith.
