CIRCULAR:

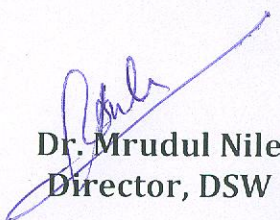

Respected Sir/Madam,

This is with reference to the G. R of Higher and Technical Education Department, Mantralaya regarding the protection of women against sexual harrasement at workplaceby 2010 and the subsequent judgement in a civil appeal No.8513/2012. The following are excerpts guidelines that are expected to the followed by all educational institutions.

1. Persons in-charge of the educational institutions, places of worhip, cinema theatres, railway stations, bus-stands have to take steps as they deem fit to prevent eve-teasing, within their precincts and, on a complaint being made, they must pass on the information to the nearest police station or the women's Help Centre.
2. Where any incident of eve-teasing is committed in a public service vehicle either by the passengers or the persons in charge of the vehicle, the crew of such vehicle shall, on a complaint made by the aggrieved person, take such vehicle to the nearest police station and give information to the police. Failure to do so should lead to cancellation of the permit to ply.
3. State Government and Union Territories are directed to establish Women' Helpline in various cities and towns, so as to curb eve-teasing within three months.
4. Suitable boards cautioning such act of eve-teasing be exhibited in all public places including precincts of educational institutions, bus stands, railway stations, cinema theatres, parties, beaches, public service vehicles, places of worship etc.

You are also requested to send a action taken on the above guidelines on deptstudentswelfare@gmail.com on a priority basis.

Place : Mumbai - 400 020.
