C I R C U L A R :-

The Principals of all affiliated Colleges imparting education in Economics and soft skills at graduate level are hereby informed that :-

The Teaching Learning has changed because of the Technology advancement and its availability to common man. The learning is supplemented by interactive method on the internet space. The students in cities as well as in rural areas can access the same information on the cyber apace. The course material for the curriculum will help to disseminate the same quality input/material all across the University Area.

University of Mumbai is planning to launch Open Education Research (OER) for the Subjects Economic and soft skills. Economics course is the most useful in various faculties. Prominently it is useful for Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor and Master of Management Studies. With assistance of Commonwealth of Education we intend to develop the course contents of Economics.

The information about Open Education Research is attached with this letter.

They are requested to send teachers who are teaching Economics and soft skills, Communication at graduate level for the workshop organized at Sir Cowasji Jahangair Hall (Convocation Hall), University of Mumbai, Fort, Mumbai -32 on 28th September 2011 at 11.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. Please nominate teachers from your institute for this workshop.
