

No. Exam / COE / 143 of 2012

PRESS NOTE

Due to problems in the train services on Wednesday 18th April, 2012 some of the students at various examinations scheduled on that day could not reach the such examination centers notified for conduct of examination. And so some of the students reached the centers at late were allowed to appear for the said examination and appropriate additional time was allowed to them in order to compensate the academic lose of the students.

In spite of the efforts from the side of the University administration and necessary instructions to the all Chief Conductors of the examinations held on Wednesday 18th April, 2012. The examination department received information from three colleges, viz 1) Institute of Science, 2) Wilson College, 3) Khalsa College and 4) D.G. Ruparel College, informed that some candidates from each centers could not reach before 2.00 p.m. to the examination venue and hence they missed their examination at MSc.Part-I.

On 18th April, 2012 as soon as the examination held between 11.00 a.m. to 2.00 p.m. The examination department gathered the information on absentees of the students for the various examinations held on 18th April, 2012. It appears that most of the students appeared for their respective examinations barring at M.Sc.Part-I above named examination centers, due to their late arrival at respective centers.

Considering the genuine difficulties faced by the students due to destruction in rail service the Board of Examinations after due deliberation resolved as follows:

- 1) The students those who failed to appear for the examination of M.Sc.Part-I and other examinations if any, held on Wednesday 18th April, 2012 between 11.00 a.m. to 2.00 p.m. specially at the center in the city of Mumbai, Thane urban, New Mumbai including Panvel and up to Virar shall be allowed to appear for the examinations held on the said day, subject to condition that the concerned examinee gave in writing through the college/center for availing the said facility. The students shall also take care to send their grievances through the colleges/centers by giving their seat no., name of the paper and name of the examination to examination department of the University.
- 2) After verification of the letters / representations from the respective colleges / centres / students or any competent authority, the date of examination be announced alongwith center of examinations on the University website, by issuing circular to the examination centers / colleges on the decision of the Board of Examinations of the University in this behalf.
- 3) The information communicated to the colleges / institutions through the website or circular in respect of the conduct of examination, specially fixing of the examination centers, announcement of the examinations, the details regarding papers coursewise re-examination to be held on the day, date and venue fixed by the University.

Yours faithfully,
