

Library of University of Mumbai to get Book-Cell of more than 4500 renowned and rare books.

Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Dr Vijay Khole to accept and initiate the "reference book cell". This is a prestigious achievement in concurrence with the rich heritage of the University and the Library as well. The book cell named as "Shri. G.D.Khanolkar reference book-cell" shall be accessible for students of all the Universities and the scholars in the field as well.

During Seiqui –Centennial Year of the University of Mumbai, i.e. 2006-2007, it was resolved to accept a collection of rare Marathi and English books of Emient Marathi writer Late Shri G. D. Khanolkar, for the University Library. This donation will be handed over symbolically to Dr. Vijay Khole, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, University of Mumbai, on Wednesday 8th October 2008, at 5.00 p.m. in Sir Cowasji Jehangir Hall (Convocation Hall).

You all are invited for the program, as communicated by Prof. Vijaya Rajhansa – Librarian University of Mumbai.

For further queries –

PI contact – Prof Rajahansa – 9820241874 / 26526679.
