

ORDINANCES, REGULATIONS AND SYLLABUS OF THE REVISED COURSE FOR THE DIPLOMA IN PRE-SCHOOL EDUCATION, UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI

INTRODUCTION

Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) for children below 6 years are globally emerging as an area of high priority. This is largely in view of recent research in the field of neuroscience which has established that 90 percent of the brain's growth occurs by the time the child is 5 years of age. This growth is influenced by not only the nutritional and health status of the child but also the psycho social experiences and environment the child is exposed to during these early years. A large number of children, particularly in poverty situations, come from homes which are not able to provide a stimulating environment to the child, thus leading to social inequity. ECCE has proven to successfully narrow this equity gap by compensating for the home deficits in these early years and enabling children to be better prepared for school, and for life. ECCE has therefore been included in the EFA Global initiative as the first goal in the education ladder.

Preschool Education:

The Early Childhood Stage includes the sub stage of Preschool Education for children from 3 to 6 years, prior to their entry to school. With the advent of the Right to Education (2009) all children are now expected to come into school at the age of six years. However, research indicates that a very large number come in with inadequate school preparedness, and these children tend to continue in school with low learning levels and higher probability of dropping out in the early primary grades. This "early learning crisis", globally and in India, points to the need for children to be provided with more developmentally appropriate early learning opportunities at the pre primary stage, so as to promote their school readiness and ensure a smooth and seamless transition for them into formal learning. The National Policy on ECCE (2013) has also emphasized the significance of ECCE and its linkage with primary education and emphasized the need to ensure satisfactory quality in ECCE provisions.

The RTE (2009) has, as stated in Section 11, directed states to endeavor to provide preschool education to all children between 3 to 6 years of age to prepare them for formal schooling. Given this scenario, there is expected to be an urgent need for professionally trained educators for this stage of education who can take responsibility for this transition from pre primary to early primary grades, using developmentally appropriate methodologies. It therefore becomes the obligation of the state to ensure that there are professionally prepared preschool educators/teachers who have acquired the necessary sensitivity and understanding of early learning and developmental needs of young children in different contexts and of appropriate ways to respond to these.

These teachers would be required to know how young children below 6 years learn and develop, often in diverse sociolinguistic contexts which pose their own challenges; how early childhood care and education can help to narrow the equity gap through developmentally appropriate and contextualized opportunities, interactions and experiences that respect the child's right to participate, learn and receive appropriate guidance, irrespective of class, caste, gender and ability and develop to their full potential. They are required to understand the concept and significance of school readiness for later schooling and lifelong learning and locate this learning within a sound disciplinary understanding of basic subjects such as Mathematics, Language and Environmental education which children will be expected to learn in primary grades. These considerations have created a fresh set of expectations from the preschool educators as facilitators and mentors and not didactic teachers, for which the process of teacher preparation also needs a shift in perspective. The present course attempts to prepare effective preschool educators to be able to fulfill the above expectations.

The student teachers will through this curriculum benefit from an optimal balance between theoretical and practical experience to build up a repertoire of knowledge, skills and sensitivity to meet the needs of diverse learning situations, individuals, communities and contexts. The reality of classroom diversity is a feature that runs as a consistent thread across the curriculum reminding the potential teacher to address the social and individual contexts of children with sensitivity and understanding. Diversity is considered as variation in religious beliefs, gender, social groups, language, food and customs as also in understanding the needs of differently-abled children. It orients the educator to the value and significance of inclusive education.

The curriculum focuses on approaches, strategies and methods of creating responsive environments with a focus on participatory methods for teacher education. Student teachers will be equipped to be able to organize and manage the classroom in terms of resources, time, scheduling as also innovative use of space and be aware of the health, nutrition and safety issues of the child, including the importance of yoga, and a developed ability to apply the knowledge in specific situations.

The student teacher will be able to engage with the curriculum critically and not treat any knowledge as given or fixed, so that subsequently too when in a preschool, both the teacher and the children would evolve as reflective learners. The attempt is to infuse a balance towards effectively integrating modern technological developments in education with traditional and folk literature and teachers' own communication skills, making the teacher education programme more holistic, interactive and reflective through a planned process of self development.

MAIN FEATURES OF THE DIPLOMA PROGRAMME

- Th
The minimum academic qualifications prescribed for admission to this programme is Senior Secondary (Grade 12). Curriculum Framework for Diploma in Preschool Education (D.PSE) .The duration of the programme shall be two academic years. Although the curriculum framework indicates annual planning in the courses, the programme design lends itself to the semester system effectively. Academic year is equivalent to 200 days of actual teaching (not including examinations and admission). Internship of a minimum of 45 days is proposed. An Institution is estimated to work in a five or six day week mode for a minimum of 36 hours in a week, during which physical presence of teachers and student teachers is necessary in the institution to ensure their availability for advice, guidance, dialogue and consultation as and when needed.
Batch Size is envisaged as not more than 50 student teachers; for practical sessions a maximum of 15 to 20 student teachers are recommended per session.

➤ The courses are assigned credits and against each course the credits and corresponding marks are indicated to facilitate transaction/adaptation of the curriculum. The weightages are as follows: 1 Credit = 25 marks = 16 hours per semester for Theory and 32 hours for Practical's.

➤ The course content is organized and sequenced in such a way as to enable the student teachers to move from basic Foundation courses towards courses which are related to professional development in terms of content and pedagogy of early learning.

➤ A new thrust area is a course on "Self Development" which focuses on the self and personal development of the student teacher and enhancement of her/his awareness of contemporary issues. This could include a course on ICT based computer applications as well as on English Communication and Yoga.

➤ The Theory: Practical ratio is maintained at 50:50 in terms of credits so that there are overall 40 credits for theory and 40 credits for practical. Theory classes include Tutorials and field based assignments and projects.

➤ The Practice teaching component is envisaged as along a continuum with a three stage process — Stage 1: Observation of children in preschools followed by practical in simulated situations; Stage 2: Planned practice teaching in preschools for part of the day e.g. transacting lesson plans, block teaching; and Stage 3: Full time Internship in Preschools across different types of programmes.

Some Definitions:

Tutorials: Activities involving mentoring in smaller groups related to furthering understanding of theoretical concepts, conducting action research, library assignments etc.

Practical's: Activities involving actual work with children /families/institutions including creating teaching learning materials, aids and daily plans.

Practice teaching: Observing classrooms and conducting planned activities, initially in a simulated situation and then in a real classroom situation with children. 5 Curriculum Framework for Diploma in Preschool Education (D.PSE)

Internship: Actual full time placement or immersion in institutions involving independently working in real life situations in preschools for a specified duration, to get a holistic experience.

dent Assessment is suggested as a continuous, comprehensive evaluation process and is linked to identify learner outcomes for each course. Although the internal and external assessment shall be fixed by the affiliating body, the Internal-External overall ratio is proposed as around 70:30 with at least 20-30 percent marks assigned for continuous internal assessment and 70-80 percent for examination conducted by the examining body.

One fourth of the total marks/weightage shall be allocated to evaluating the students' performance in classroom observations and 16 weeks of school internship. Students will be assessed internally on the entire practicum course, and not only on the project/field work given to them as part of their units of study. The basis for assessment and criteria used ought to be transparent for students to benefit maximally out of professional feedback. Students will be given information about their grades/marks as part of professional feedback, so that they get the opportunity to improve their performance. The basis for internal assessment may include individual or group assignments, observation records, diaries, reflective journals etc.

➤ Se
minars and field assignments arising out of each theory course are integrated with the respective theory classes.

➤ Th e course is required to be conducted in an interactive mode with extensive participation of the student teachers. Didactic methods of teaching may be resorted to only where absolutely necessary.

➤ Giv
en the nature of the envisaged curriculum for teacher education, with an integrated and inclusive approach, and emphasis on tutorials, interactive teaching methods, mentoring, internship etc, the recommendation is for a core faculty of at least six full time teacher educators, of which two should be from the field of Early Childhood Care and Education or Child Development and one each from the field of Education with Science, Mathematics and Language respectively to teach the disciplinary courses. One position is required for Sociology of Education to address Gender and Diversity courses and engagement with community. The Teacher educators should be post graduates in respective areas as indicated in the Norms and Standards, with at least 3 to 5 years of teaching experience at preschool level as desirable. The other courses would require persons with specializations in the respective areas on a part time basis, as indicated in the Norms and Standards notified by NCTE.
